

Sunitha Lal

Chief of Human Resources

As Head of People Operations and Strategy at Ather Energy, Sunitha Lal leads HR functions & is passionately exploring and curating the organisational culture.

Sunitha has over 25 years of experience across all HR verticals. She is a strong coach and has a significant background in organisational & leadership development. Before joining Ather, Sunitha served as the Chief Human Resources Officer at Matrimony.com. She has also been Senior Vice President - Talent Management & Head of HRBP in Mphasis and before that was Vice President and Head of HR at AIG.

She has implemented innovative strategies and fostered a value-led culture across leadership roles. She facilitates the establishment of people processes and systems at Ather while exploring and nurturing the talent. Ather presents a unique ecosystem given the intersection of product, people, and process evolution and reflects diversity in generations and ideas.

Sunitha has a Master's degree in Labour Management and a Diploma in Labour Laws and Administrative Laws. She is interested in Group Relations methodology and has been a part of the Group Relations Conference (GRC) as both member and staff. She is passionate about writing, Carnatic music and is a practitioner of Iyengar Yoga. She records observations and idiosyncrasies of self and others on her blog